NOT ONLY ARE WE PHYSICIANS, WE’RE PARENTS, TOO

We do more than treat your child’s illness. Our pediatricians get to know you and your family. We believe that the physician-parent and physician-child relationship are essential for promoting healthy bodies and minds.

At Green Road Pediatrics, your child has one full-time, primary pediatrician located in one office. This pediatrician provides all of your child’s well-care and most ill-care. No one is better suited to help with the various childhood and adolescent challenges that are sure to arise.

In addition to monitoring your child’s health and development, we’re here to support your role as a parent. Whether your concern is about introducing foods to your infant, managing your toddler’s strong will, meeting school challenges, or navigating adolescence successfully, we will be your partners. Our guidance is offered from two perspectives: your child’s personal pediatrician, and as a tested parent.

“Dr. Hellerstein was my doctor. So, when I started a family, I wanted her to be my daughter’s doctor, too. It is comforting to have such an excellent doctor who takes a personal interest in my family.” — Shaya, Rikki’s Mom

Dr. Cochran helped me get through post-partum depression and provided my husband and me with excellent advice on caring for our colicky baby. The other doctors in the group are wonderful as well. Thanks for everything!

Our family has been blessed to have such an intelligent, kind and caring physician. When Dr. Namrow walked into our hospital room and held our precious gift, we knew that a bond was formed. Caring for a newborn without the support of immediate family left me feeling vulnerable. Because of Dr. Namrow’s compassion, I was able to confide my fears and hopes for Andre.99

– Andre, Andre Jr.’s Dad

I can always get an appointment the same day and I love that there are so many ways to contact Dr. Borus or his staff. When I took Jessica to Rainbow’s ER, the doctor said that he takes his children to Green Road Pediatrics as well! I am so comfortable putting the health of my child into their hands.99

WE UNDERSTAND THAT A TRIP TO THE DOCTOR’S OFFICE CAN BE SCARY FOR YOUR CHILD.

That’s why we’ve transformed our office into a “kid-friendly” jungle environment. Your visit will transport you to a colorful rainforest, complete with life-sized trees, flowers, glowing insects and wild animals that help to entertain children and grown-ups alike. Engaged by brightly rendered artists’ prints and stuffed animals inside our exam rooms, many children are not only less anxious — but actually look forward to their visits.
